

Are you applying for the National Science Foundation's Graduate Research Fellowship Program (NSF GRFP)?

If so, then sign up for a

Virtual Writing Bootcamp

hosted by SU's Center for Fellowship and Scholarship Advising (CFSA) to help you draft your application!

CFSA will send you a series of emails with exercises intended to guide you through the writing and revising process for your application essays, and provide individualized writing support after you complete the bootcamp!

When:

September 14th – September 25th, at your own pace

Where:

Wherever you want!
